MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE AMENDED COMPLAINT

COMES Now, Plaintiff Masis Staffing Solutions, LLC (hereinafter "Plaintiff") and seeks leave of Court to file an Amended Complaint pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a)(2). In support of this Motion, Plaintiffs show this Honorable Court as follows:

Plaintiff filed the Complaint in Fulton County Superior Court on April 12, 2022. Defendants, with the consent and non-opposition of Plaintiff, removed the lawsuit from Fulton County Superior Court on or about July 13, 2022. [Dkt. # 1]. A copy of the Complaint was attached to the Notice of Removal. Six days later, on July 19, 2022, Defendants filed a Motion to Dismiss for Failure to State a Claim.

[Dkt. # 3].

Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a)(2) provides that "a party may amend its pleading only with the opposing party's written consent or the court's leave. The court should freely give leave when justice so requires." Plaintiff therefore respectfully seeks the Court's leave to proceed with the Amended Complaint. A copy of the Proposed Amended Complaint is attached to this Motion as Exhibit A.

In support of this request, Plaintiff shows that the Amended Complaint has not been submitted for any improper purpose and will not delay the orderly disposition of this matter. The Complaint was originally drafted for a state court proceeding and not in contemplation of the need to satisfy federal pleading standards. Furthermore, Defendants purport to challenge the basis for personal jurisdiction over the Defendants in the state of Georgia. Based on a further review of specific facts relating to the contacts and interactions amongst the Parties, it is appropriate to plead additional counts and claims for relief. Rather than argue the pending Motion [Dkt. # 3] and then seek leave to amend the complaint to add additional counts and/or potentially need to re-plead allegations relating to Defendants' contacts with this forum to more fully articulate the basis for personal jurisdiction over the Defendants, it is more efficient to simply submit the Amended Complaint at this time. The Amended Complaint will impose no improper prejudice upon Defendants because even if the Court were to grant Defendants' Motion to Dismiss (which Plaintiff denies would be appropriate), the Court should grant Plaintiff at least one opportunity to a file an amended complaint.

Furthermore, if Defendants continue to contest personal jurisdiction after a review

Wherefore, Plaintiff respectfully requests an Order granting the Court's leave to proceed with the Amended Complaint pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a)(2). Respectfully submitted this 19th day of August 2022.

of the Amended Complaint, Defendants will have an opportunity to do so.
